

UK Conference

4th-5th July, 2015

hosted by the KCL MAP Chapter

‘Identity and Underrepresentation’

Location: Room S-1.27, King’s College London, The Strand

Refreshments served in: Room S-1.01, S-1.22, S-1.29

Programme

Saturday

09:30: Registration

09:50: Welcome

10:00: James Andow - ‘Expressive Injustice’ (Reading)

11:00: Andreas Bunge - ‘Interactions between propositional and associative processes in prejudice and their implications for tackling implicitly biased behaviour (Nottingham)

12:00: Coffee

12:30: Jae Hetterley - ‘Trans Phenomenology: Merleau-Ponty and the Struggle for Identity’ (KCL)

13:30: Lunch

14:30: Yi Li - ‘Eugenic Thought Experiments: how philosophical thought experiments exclude marginalised perspectives’ (LSE)

15:30: Alex McKenzie - ‘Taxonomy and the Body: A Methodological Synthesis of Genealogy’ (KCL)

16:30: Coffee

17:00: Keynote, Amia Srinivasan - 'Does Feminist Philosophy Rest on a Mistake?' (Oxford)

18:30: Drinks!

Sunday

10:00: Karl Dando - 'Quinoa qua Kwinoah: Philosophy and the Working Class' (Independent Scholar)

11:00: Azita Chellappoo - 'Establishing an epistemic basis for correcting implicit biases' (LSE)

12:00: Coffee

12:15: Keynote, Jules Holroyd - 'The Explanatory Significance of Implicit Bias' (Nottingham)

13:45: Closing Remarks

If any accessibility needs have not been met, or if you have any question or suggestions, please feel welcome to approach one of the organising team to discuss and we will do our best to resolve the situation.

Conference supported by grants from:

KING'S College
LONDON

Department of Philosophy

KING'S College
LONDON

Faculty of Arts and Humanities

ANALYSIS

Analysis Trust